

Do not pursue anything that will lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. The last 11 months have been bliss. No calls to sell me windows, siding, credit cards, free vacations, and on and on. My evenings are now peaceful. If the phone rings I know it is worth answering. Wouldn't you enjoy that? How many times have you gotten up to answer the phone and be asked to hold? Or offered home improvement items when you rent? Stay out of it and respect state sovereignty. Indiana enjoys our privacy law. Don't screw up a good thing.
